

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Rutherford Millhauser, 13, 6200 S. Campbell av., killed by auto. Harry Clayton, 23, held under $5,000 bond.

Honeymoon on houseboat broken. Mrs. Jay Ingraham, Evanston, drove hubby from ship. Mother-in-law blamed.

Knabenshue's dirigible balloon made trip over parks and lake. Eight passengers given 24-minute ride.

Police, pension fund muddled. Efforts may be made to limit number eligible. City council placed dog-catchers in rank with patrolmen.

Barney Jasmuskiewicz arrested on charge of robbing S. Scofiunski.

John Worthington, defunct banker, ordered to furnish $5,000 bond or go to jail. Own bond refused.

$1,734,000 appropriation recommended for police and fire stations. Unissued bonds to be used.

Arthur Feltz, 12, 5129 Lowe av., amused baby with rifle. Fired. Mother dead. Baby in hospital.

Lake Bluff flower beds raided. Rare specimens missing.

Foster North, dismissed 29 years ago for cutting chapel exercises, granted degree by Illinois University.

$154,114 estate left by H. C. F. Zeiss.

J. Gallagher and Chas. Eggleston, 4251 S. Ashland av., held in connection with death of Otto Luleich.

Ordinance prohibiting chickens from running at large recommended for passage.

Buggy belonging to P. Dickert, 2410 Ballou st., and J. Ziske, 5434 Le-laud av., hit by engine. Men jumped. Uninjured.

Receiver appointed for Modern Stove Co., Chicago Heights. Liabilities $100,000.

John Jordon, 2984 Archer av., 10th time in hospital. Can stop pulse by shrugging shoulder. Weak heart.

Judge Owens to hear charges against taxidodgers today.

Russell Hazel, 2, 114 W. 113th st., injured by runaway horse. May die.

Blanche Redmond, negress, 6548 Washington blvd., suicided. Gun.

Christ Stevens placed on trial for murder of Andrew Pelorioris. Death sentence asked.

Death sentence of Henry Spencer, murderer of Mrs. Rexroat, upheld. To die July 31.

Dr. Charles J. Whalen elected president of Chicago Medical Society.

Dogs bit 10 Tuesday.

Sister Mary Bornosa, Angel Guardian Orphan Home, hit by wagon. Bruised.

"The Little Senorita" and "The Master Mind" rejected by movie censors. Ten films slashed.

Divinity schools too academic to teach religion, says Dean Mathews of University of Chicago.

F. Holterman, 668 Roscoe st., and E. P. Hill, 730 E. 39th st., motor-cyclists, hit by auto. Hospital.

Miss Hazel Pollock, 24, music student, held to grand jury for theft, under $2,000 bond.

Jails schools for crime and Chicago lock-ups infamous, says Prof. Henderson.

Voice culture school planned by auctioneers. Claim taxes eat up profits.

100-ton girder placed in Stevens bldg. Took forty horses to haul it.

Good boys may be separated from bad by County Board. Special home for bad ones considered.

Burglar entered I. E. McBrady's home, Evanston. Frightened. Fled. Left bicycle behind.

S. S. South American made maiden trip. Second largest passenger ship to enter Chicago river.

Paul Walter, 24, fined $100 for annoying Sophie Paligrodzke, 15.

Four reported missing to police.

$100,000 suit filed against Channell Chemical Co. by Geo. B. Haines.

Thirteen physicians took civil service test for Oak Forest infirmary.

Mrs. Rose Koster, 2840 Woodward av., had hubby up for non-support.